

SOCIETY

SOCIETY in Richmond is much interested in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Evelyn Lela Gardner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Gardner, to George Thomas Walte, of Herndon, the wedding to be celebrated in Louisville some time this fall. Dr. Gardner was for several years pastor of the Grace Street Baptist Church in Richmond, and Miss Gardner has a wide circle of friends here who are interested in her approaching marriage. The Gardners are prominently related in South Carolina, having lived for a number of years in Greenville. For the past several years Dr. Gardner has held a chair at the Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, and the wedding will take place in that city. Mr. Walte, who is widely related throughout the State, was one of the football stars of Richmond College several years ago, and is well known in this city.

Miss Dudley Powers, who landed in New York last week, after an extended stay in Europe, spent several days recently in Richmond en route for her home in Louisville. She will join her father, the Rev. Dudley Powers, and spend several weeks. Miss Anne Royall, who has been a guest of Mrs. Harry Toulmin at "Langollen" near Upperville, has joined Miss Powers in Warrenton, and will be her guest for the horse show there this week.

Miss Powers and Miss Royall will both attend the balls given in Warrenton this week, and several dinners have been planned for Miss Powers and her guest after the horse show.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Rosalie Barns for the wedding of her daughter, Jessie Carter, to John Randolph Anderson, Jr., the wedding to be celebrated at high noon, September 7, in the home of Dr. S. W. Selden, Oak Hill, Va.

The bridal couple will have their home, after October 1, at 2024 Stuart Avenue, this city. The announcement of the approaching nuptials will be received with interest by Richmond friends of Miss Barnes, who is a charming girl, and visited here during last spring. Mr. Anderson is a son of the late John Randolph Anderson and Mrs. Mattie H. Anderson, of Lexington, Va., but has been for years identified with the business and social life and interests of Richmond. The former residence of his grandfather, William Anderson, a prominent citizen of Richmond in the early nineteenth century, was Warsaw, on the site of which the present home of the Little Sisters of the Poor has been built. Warsaw was one of the places that rendered the hospitality of Richmond famous several generations ago.

Back From Motor Trip.
Fred R. Bane has returned to Pulaski after an automobile trip to New York and other points of interest en route. Mrs. L. P. Summers, of Abingdon, and Miss Rose Williams, daughter of Attorney-General Williams, of this city, were among Mr. Bane's guests on the trip North. They were absent from the State for some several weeks.

At Virginia Beach.
Among the guests registered at the Kinsey cottage, Virginia Beach, are Mrs. Jack Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stinton, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Buxton, Jr., J. W. Donovan, Mrs. W. W. Taylor, Mrs. George K. Anderson and Miss Bessie Williamson.

Miss Cleveland Engaged.
Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Esther Cleveland, eldest daughter of the late Grover Cleveland, and Mrs. Cleveland, to Randolph D. West, of Princeton University. Miss Cleveland is about twenty years old, and at present is spending the summer with her mother at Tamworth, N. H.

The wedding will be celebrated October 15. Mrs. Cleveland is planning the erection of a bungalow for her daughter on her property in New Hampshire.

Concerning Miss Eubank.
Miss Annie Belle Eubank, who recently completed the post-graduate course in art at the Mary Baldwin Seminary, in Staunton, has been elected to the chair at the Fredericksburg Presbyterian College, at Fredericksburg. Miss Eubank graduated in June from the Mary Baldwin Seminary, and also assisted in several classes in art at that institution during the past session. She will leave some time in September to occupy her position at the Fredericksburg Presbyterian College.

At Ocean View.
The Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, of Fayetteville, N. C., had their usual summer outing at the Ocean View cottage, Ocean View, again this year. Richmond's Leading Jewelers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ople, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hillis, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Peyton, Hon. and Mrs. J. S. Beard, Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. John and Mrs. Francis Greer, Mrs. Columbus Hall, Mrs. John Guy, of Richmond; Miss Sullivan, Misses Miller, Miss Frances Beard, Miss Gantt, of Annapolis; Miss Emily Panckake, Miss Elsie Curry, Stuart Robertson, John Cochran, Greedilla and Leslie Curry, Frank and William Beard and Columbus Hall, Jr.

Of Interest Here.
The Washington Post of Friday morning contains the following article of interest to Richmond society:

"The visit of M. and Mme. Jusserand to Copenhagen has been a great success. The King and Queen of Denmark gave them a dinner, which included the American Minister and Mrs. Egan and the French Minister and Countess de Beauchamp."

"The Countess de Beauchamp gave a dinner, covers of twenty-four, on Tuesday evening, and Mrs. Egan gave a Tuesday party at the Hotel de Ville, Copenhagen, next afternoon, at which Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Perkins, of Washington, were present. Ambassador Jusserand and Gerald Egan won two tennis matches. Ambassador Jusserand is considered one of the best tennis players in Europe."

"The Count and Countess de Malice have taken an apartment for several months in Copenhagen. The warm welcome given by the Danes to Ambassador Jusserand and his charming wife, quite eclipsed the reception to the Crown Prince of Slam. Mrs. Goelet's yacht has gone to Copenhagen, and much attention from the Crown Prince."

Both M. and Mme. Jusserand are well known in fashionable Virginia society, and their movements abroad are of much interest here.

Recent Announcements.
Mr. and Mrs. J. William Miller have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elvira Virginia Miller, to Frederick C. Wright, of Hagerstown, Md. The wedding will take place some time in the fall.

How to Remove A Bad Complexion
(From London Fashions.)

Cosmetics can never really help a poor complexion; often they are positively harmful. The sensible, rational way is to actually remove the thin veil of stinging, half-dead scarf skin from the face and give the fresh, vigorous and beautiful young skin underneath a chance to show itself and to breathe.

This is best done in a very simple way by merely applying mercolized wax at night, like cold cream, and washing it off in the morning. Good mercolized wax can be obtained from any well stocked druggist. It absorbs the disfiguring cuticle gradually and harmlessly, leaving a brilliant, natural complexion. Of course, this also takes with it all such facial blemishes as red blotches, tan, moth patches, sallowness, liver spots, pimples, etc. As a freckle remover and general complexion beautifier this old-fashioned remedy is unequalled.
